

LEARNING

Tau Omega Epsilon...

...offers members opportunities for peer mentoring and group advising to enhance their progress through program coursework, graduation, and professional choices.

If you have declared an Area of Concentration in English with Secondary Teaching Certification,
you are eligible to join!

For more information:

- Meet members by visiting the English Education Center, Combs Building 402
- Check the bulletin board near the EEC, CB 402
- Contact the faculty sponsor, Prof. Kathryn Mincey
CB 416, 783-2305
k.mincey@moreheadstate.edu

Tau Omega Epsilon

Teachers of English

TΩE

Morehead State University's Student Organization

For

English Education

“Teaching is the highest form of understanding.”

--Aristotle

FUN

TRAVEL

SERVICE

Tau Omega Epsilon members at KCTE

Tau Omega Epsilon members at KCTE

Celebrating Achievement

Tau Omega Epsilon...

...provides members an opportunity to attend the annual professional meetings of the Kentucky Council of Teachers of English and the National Council of Teachers of English during their senior year.

Upcoming national conventions:

New York City (2007)

San Antonio (2008)

Philadelphia (2009)

Orlando (2010)

Chicago (2011)

Student Teachers at NCTE in Indianapolis

Tau Omega Epsilon...

...encourages members to contribute to community educational and service projects through events such as angel-tree gifts and non-perishable food drives for area schools' Family Resource Centers and volunteering to support reading and writing activities in area schools.

"Teaching is not just a job. It is a human service, and it must be thought of as a mission."

--Ralph Tyler