Performances/Clinics

Our jazz clinic allows a full hour for each ensemble to perform and work with the guest clinicians. We recommend that each band have two or three pieces of music prepared. Bands of all sizes and levels are encouraged to attend. After the performance of these pieces, the band will have the remainder of the hour for feedback and instruction.

This year world-renowned jazz educator and Trombonist of the Chicago Jazz Ensemble, Conn Selmer clinician, Tim Coffman and Drummer David Glover will attend the clinic and interact with your students. Jamey Aebersold will share his insights on improvisation during the clinic session
